

AASG CODE OF CONDUCT

The Alaska Association of Student Governments (AASG) is under the umbrella of the Alaska School Activities Association (ASAA). Student participants are ambassadors of their school and community. As such, AASG and ASAA expect students to portray good citizenship, practice fair and ethical behavior, and to be good role models. To ensure health, safety and rights of all participants in ASAA- and AASG-sponsored events, the AASG Executive Board adopted this Code of Conduct.

AASG-sponsored events strive to offer a safe environment for Alaskan students to learn, grow and have fun. Although event organizers have assumed responsibility for planning a safe and wholesome program, it is the responsibility of each student to behave in an appropriate manner. The accompanying advisor, chaperone or designee retain responsibility for the student while traveling to and from the event, as well as at the event itself. Individual school district policies may also further delineate this responsibility.

All students participating in AASG-sponsored events are expected to:

1. Be under the direct supervision of a school official or his/her designee at all times.
2. Attend all event sessions that are required by the school and/or the advisor.
3. Respect the rights, diversity and safety of others.
4. Treat event personnel, including host school staff and students, with dignity and respect.
5. Respect the property of other individuals and facilities. Vandalism, theft, and possession of stolen property will not be tolerated.

All ASAA sponsored events will be conducted in drug-free environments. Use, possession, and/or distribution of alcohol, tobacco, or controlled substances are strictly prohibited.

Violation of this code will result in the withdrawal of the student's right to participate in the event, as well as to attend the event. The student's advisor, AASG executive director, host school's administrator and jointly retain the right to send the student home at the student's expense.
